UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Zoning Advisory Committee is holding a meeting Monday, November 9th @6:00 P.M.

Highway Garage – Attorney Armstrong stated that the goal was to present to the Board a final set of plans to be sent out for bid but due to some architectural changes, the final plans are not ready. After changes have been made, the papers will be retyped and given to Greg Dende and then given to the Supervisor within a couple of weeks. Hopefully the plans will be presented at the November Board Meeting.

Histories of Preble –Board members found the book interesting. Jim will contact Pam Poulin. A suggestion of having the pages put in a spiral cover was brought up..

Plaque for Park – Peter Knapp presented a list of names which he would like engraved on the plaque. He also mentioned that the park had been dedicated to a former Supervisor, Woody Swayze. Peter read the names on the list and suggested that the residents who planted the trees also be included.

Motion made by Linda Riehlman, seconded by Al Socha
RESOLUTION #61: To move ahead with the purchase of a plaque for the park with the appropriate names listed
Peter Knapp(aye) Dave Morse(aye) Linda Riehlman(aye) Al Socha(aye)

The benefit at the park for Terri Morgan went over well. Kevin Krueger and his crew did a real good job of cleaning up.

PUBLIC COMMENTS

Jeff Griswold –There is a pancake breakfast at the fire station October 25th. There will also be a hayride.

Dave Smith – The benefit went over good. The music was very loud.

John Steger – Was working on a project at the church and agreed that the music was loud.
